HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, May 17th, 1822.

10.000 DOLLS.

Our friends in the country are reminded that the time for awarding one of the capitals in the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY is near at hand, and that their investments should be made as speedily as possible, so that no disappointment may prevent their obtaining chances previous to the 6th of NEXT MONTH, on which day the first drawn number will be entitled to the brilliant prize of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS!

Direct all Orders as heretofore to
J. I. COHEN, Jr.
Secretary to the Managers—Baltimore.

On reference to the Official List of yesterday's drawing on the opposite page, it will be noticed that One Hundred Dollars was the highest prize drawn. The Wheel consequently continues to gain rapidly, the amount of which during the last five days exceeds Ten Thousand Dollars! Although the drawing yesterday did not yield many prizes, still, the highest of them, besides Fifties, &c. were obtained from COHEN'S OFFICE.

Contemplated Rise of Tickets.

The Monument Lottery is one third over, and as yet Three Thousand dollars is the highest Capital drawn—The great floating prizes still remain in the Wheel, where, should they continue much longer, an advance in the price of Tickets will necessarily take place, especially, as they are becoming scarce, the Managers having very few on hand.—The sales have been large and such as were expected, taking into view (independent of pecuniary inducement) the laudable object of the Scheme, being for the completion of the Monument, to the memory of the Father of his country!

A Premium on Thursday next!

It will be recollected that on Thursday next (14th day) the first drawn Number in the Monument lottery, agreeably to the Scheme, will be entitled to ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

In the list of the 12th drawing published in our last, a typographical error occurred in No. 17882—It should have been printed 17382.

TOBACCO INSPECTION.

The greatest day's work which was ever performed in this city, in the inspection of tobacco, was done on Saturday last, at Calhoun's warehouse, by Mr. Mackall. This gentleman, under whose direction there are but four screws and the necessary number of hands to work them, did, on that day, open, cooper, break in five places, and inspect, one hundred and thirty hogsheads. An idea of this astonishing performance may be better formed, when our readers are told that 70 hogsheads, broken only in three places, were formerly considered as a very great day's work.

On this occasion, we cannot omit noticing the expertness with which business is dispatched at all our tobacco warehouses. Our commercial duties often lead us to them, and we are as often surprised at the regularity and facility of operation which prevails in all. Each hogshead is opened; the staves, hoops and heading are separated and weighed; the tobacco is then broken in five separate places, and from each break a sample is selected, making five samples from each hogshead; in an instant, the covering is again put on and secured, the parcel is weighed, the tare deducted, the requisite marks are put on, and it is rolled out. Thus it goes on from morning till night. The inspector, intent on doing his duty—the planter, looking with anxious eye to the marks, calculating, in the meantime, what he may realize—and the dealers, scrutinizing every hogshead, for the purpose of making it their own, if it is fine or good.

The bustle at a tobacco inspection house is interesting, and is well worth seeing by those who are not aware of the immense amount of money which is employed in this extensive trade.

[Fed. Rep.]

WEST INDIA TRADE.

The following is an extract of a letter dated London, April 6, to a gentleman at New-York.—The writer is a member of Parliament.

"I conclude, the termination of non-intercourse between the States and our colonies, will be an acceptable measure on your side; as all West India produce is to be permitted to be sent direct to the United States, it may lead to an intercourse of some importance. Your produce is to be subject to a moderate colonial duty, to afford some protection to the produce of our North American colonies: but it will be the same in American as British bottoms. I hope it will lead to a better state of things in the West Indies, and a better understanding with your government. It is also probable there will soon be an increase of duty here, particularly on foreign cotton—which, in that case will be all drawn back on goods of yarn, when exported. The amount is not settled, but it may be considerable."

New claims to Florida.—We perceive by an advertisement in the London Observer of the 7th April, that the grantees of land under the BRITISH GOVERNMENT in East Florida from the year 1763 to 1783, are notified that they may procure AUTHENTICATED COPIES OF THEIR GRANTS, and that a professional gentleman will shortly proceed to this country for the purpose of claiming these grants.

[N. Y. Amer.]

FOREIGN NEWS.

Late and important.—By arrivals at Boston and New-York we have accounts from Europe to the 9th of April, and of a more decided tone than heretofore. It was almost certain that a war would speedily commence between Russia and Turkey, the latter power having rejected the ultimatum of the Emperor Alexander, and the Divan had unanimously resolved that "the propositions of Russia were of a nature which never could be accepted." The receipt of this intelligence in London had caused a great decline in the stocks.

England and Ireland.—In a number of the counties of England disturbances continued, and fires were kindled in all directions during the night time, individuals denounced and property destroyed without any fear of the laws. The revenue had increased the last quarter 1428,960. Count Chateaubriand the French ambassador had arrived at London. The President's Message on South American Independence was received in England by the packet ship Amity. The parliament having adjourned, the principal nobility and gentry had left London to spend the holidays in the country.

Ireland was still the scene of outrage and crime. The insurgents evinced no disposition to submit to the laws, but continued plundering dwellings and killing cattle. It is mentioned that a man was murdered in the county of Tipperary, and that nine bullets were lodged in his body.

Domestic Intelligence.

Philadelphia, May 8, 1822.

William M. Meredith and James C. Biddle, Esquires, having in the course of a trial on Tuesday the 7th inst. insulted the Court, while acting in their stations of attorneys and counsellors, Judge Halliwell this afternoon at 4 o'clock, after the Court had taken full time to consider the subject, pronounced the following judgment:

This Court on full consideration do adjudge that William M. Meredith, and James C. Biddle, Esqs. Counsellors at Law, and officers of this Court, be committed to prison in the debtors' apartment of the city and county of Philadelphia, until the first day of June next, or until discharged by the legal authority of this Court, or by due course of Law, for a high contempt by gross misdemeanour, in the presence of this Court, obstructing the administration of justice.—They were taken into custody, and committed accordingly.

The Court said they would consider, when they should next sit, as a Court of Common Pleas, the propriety of striking them off the list of Attorneys.

Mr. Gallatin, U. S. minister to France, is expected home shortly. Letters from Paris have been received by his friends in this country, which state that he would sail in the month of April.

Mr. Poletica, the Russian Ambassador, has taken passage at New-York, on board the ship Columbia expected to sail shortly for Liverpool.

General Henry Dearborn, of Boston, has been appointed by the president, minister to Portugal.

JOHN RANDOLPH, Esq. of Virginia, arrived at Liverpool, on the 6th of April, in the Amity, after a twenty days passage from New-York, to Liverpool, and set out the next day for London, in fine health and spirits.

Naval.—Captain Downes has been appointed to the command of the U. S. Frigate Guerriere, and Captain James Renshaw is to command the corvette John Adams, both vessels now lying at Norfolk. The Frigate Macedonian, Captain Biddle, was at Havana on the 28th ult.

The Eastern Argus, in reference to the disputed boundary line between the state of Maine and the British territories, states that the line contended for by the British Commissioners, will take off about one third of the state, a tract of land equal in extent to Vermont or Massachusetts.

Newsman Extraordinary.—One of the carriers of a New-York paper called the Advocate, having become indisposed, his son took his place; not knowing the subscribers he was to supply, he took for his guide a dog which had often attended his father. The animal trotted on ahead of the boy, and stopped at every door where the paper was usually left, without making a single omission or mistake.

The following description of the commencement of summer at New Orleans, is contained in a letter from New Orleans to a gentleman in Petersburg.

"The summer is rapidly approaching here; the heat already begins to be oppressive, and draws forth the lucid torrent from the brow. The dust flies in overwhelming clouds upon the wings of the wind: and the pretty little musquitoes—those charming little musicians, hum their dulcet notes in the shades of the evening, and render the night harmonious!!"
